Missionary Creativity

"The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community. While certainly not the only institution which evangelizes, if the parish proves capable of self-renewal and constant adaptivity, it continues to be the Church living in the midst of the homes of her sons and daughters"

Pope Francis in EVANGELII GAUDIUM #28

Interactive Mass Books

St. Eulalia's is excited to offer the Children's Mass Activity Book to use while at church. Filled with activities and illustrations, the book helps children better understand the parts of the Mass and the significance behind them. New Volunteers needed for Welcome Desk!

Welcome

We are seeking volunteers to serve at the parish Welcome Desk on Sunday mornings from 9:30am. to 10:30am. The Welcome Desk is located in the Atrium foyer and has Mass cards and parish registration forms available during this hour for parishioners and visitors! Volunteers are welcome to serve one Sunday a month or on a weekly basis if interested. This is a great way to add to the welcoming spirit of St. Eulalia's. We are so grateful to our parishioners: Mary Perry and Lori Carlin for their willingness to serve on select Sundays of each month! If you are interested in volunteering for this ministry, please contact Ellen Dermody at pastoralassociate@saint-eulalia.com.

This Week's Family Reflection for the 22nd Week of Ordinary Time —

Gospel Reading—Luke 14:1,7-14

When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

Parents and children often enter into “negotiations” over how much allowance is to be earned at certain ages. Typically, when a child seeks an increase in allowance, parents will attach an increase in chores and responsibilities for them to better earn the increase. Talk about what kind of allowance you received as a child and what kind of responsibilities your parents expected of you to earn your allowance.

Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about doing good deeds for others and expecting nothing in return. Read aloud Luke 14:1,7-14. Ask your children how they would feel if you told them to take on more chores without ever expecting another raise in allowance. Emphasize that Jesus teaches us that it is our duty as his followers to take care of the needs of others and to do so without expecting repayment. Discuss what other types of rewards we can find when doing good things for others.

Point out that we sometimes fall into the trap of wanting too many things and that, in the Our Father, we pray for “our daily bread,” meaning that we pray for only that which we really need in life. Conclude this time together by praying aloud the Our Father.
