A Weekly Quote from Pope Leo XIV

"There is no true civil liberty without personal freedom- that is, without respect for and the promotion of the dignity of the human person, of which freedom is an essential component. Ultimately, this freedom is given and guaranteed by God, whose voice resounds in the conscience of every human being."

The readings for this weekend can be found at #1274 in your hymnal.

Adopt a Flower Bed: A Stewardship Opportunity

We invite parish families to "adopt" a flower bed around our church grounds. Families will help care for their designated bed by regularly weeding and maintaining it throughout the growing season. Caring for our parish grounds is a simple but meaningful act of stewardship, allowing us to share our time and talents while creating a beautiful and welcoming place for our parish community to worship and gather. All gardening and maintenance must be completed outside of Mass times. To participate or learn more, please contact the Parish Office.

2027 Mass Intentions

Beginning with the upcoming Mass intention schedule, the parish will be implementing a new policy to ensure that Mass intentions are available fairly and equitably to all of our parishioners.

Our parish celebrates two weekday Masses each week, providing approximately 156 weekday Masses each year. In addition, there are two weekend Masses each week available for Mass intentions, providing approximately 104 weekend Masses each year.

The Church requires that one Sunday Mass each weekend be offered for the People of the Parish (pro populo). Therefore, the number of Masses available for individual intentions is limited.

To provide more parishioners with the opportunity to have Masses offered for their loved ones, each household will be limited to five (5) Mass intentions per calendar year—2 weekend Masses and three weekday Masses.

Additional Mass intentions may be accepted with the understanding that these Masses will be celebrated outside of the parish. The Mass intention book is now open during regular office hours.

We recognize that having a Mass offered for a loved one is a meaningful Catholic tradition and an important way of praying for family and friends. This policy is intended not to restrict this beautiful practice, but rather to ensure that as many parishioners as possible have the opportunity to schedule Mass intentions.

This Week's Family Reflection for the 27th Week in Ordinary TimeGospel Reading

Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus tells the parable about the wicked tenants.

Family Connection

In an ideal household, family members know the rules and follow them consistently. Even the most conscientious among us, however, sometimes needs to be reminded of the rules and their importance. How we respond to such correction reveals our true character. In today's Gospel Jesus exposes the religious leaders for their failure to heed God's messengers. It is an opportunity for us to consider how we respond to those who are God's messengers today, calling us to correct our ways and return to the way of the Lord.

As you gather as a family, talk about some of the most important rules of your household. Consider how consistently family members follow these rules. How are family members reminded when rules are not being followed? How do they respond? In today's Gospel Jesus corrects the religious leaders through a parable telling them that they have not heeded God's messengers. Read Matthew 21:33-43. What are some of God's rules that we must follow? How do we respond to God's messengers today? Pray together as a family that you will heed God's messengers and follow God's ways. Pray together the Act of Contrition for the times when your family has not heeded God's word.
