PERFORM A MODERN-DAY MIRACLE

TURN YOUR TAXES INTO SCHOLARSHIPS

PARTICIPATE IN THE EITC PROGRAM...
And Help St. Eulalia Parish in the Process!

The EITC Program allows an individual or business to redirect the state tax dollars that they already pay to support a Catholic School's tuition assistance program instead of directing those dollars to the Commonwealth itself.

A 90% tax credit is provided to taxpayers that redirect their tax dollars to benefit the program. For every dollar you contribute, you earn $0.90 back in a tax credit. The remaining 10% is a deductible charitable contribution for federal tax purposes.

For every parishioner donation, St. Eulalia's will also receive a credit on its Catholic School Assessment. That means it's a win-win-win for all involved!

Donating is Easy! Get Started by calling Sandra Snyder, Catholic Schools Development Director, at (570) 207-2251 or email SSnyder@dioceseofscranton.org.

This Week's Family Reflection for 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading- Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus teaches that when the Son of Man comes in glory, he will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats.

Family Connection

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us that we will be judged on only one thing: the acts of mercy we have shown to the least among us. Jesus identifies with the least ones; thus we serve Jesus whenever we serve one of the least ones. The Church calls the actions that Jesus described in today's Gospel the Corporal Works of Mercy. These works are to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to bury the dead, to shelter the homeless, to visit the sick and imprisoned, and to give alms to the poor. In these actions we show God's compassion and mercy to those in need.

As you gather as a family, recall the list of the Corporal Works of Mercy. Talk about some concrete examples of how your family might do these actions in your community and then discuss why it is important that we do these things. Read Matthew 25:31-46. Ask: Why does Jesus say we ought to do these works of mercy? (Because whenever we show mercy to another person, we show mercy to Jesus himself.) Choose one Corporal Work of Mercy that your family will act upon this week. Pray together that your family will see and serve Jesus in the least ones among us. Pray the Lord's Prayer or an Act of Love.
