A Weekly Quote from Pope Leo XIV

"There is no true civil liberty without personal freedom— that is, without respect for and the promotion of the dignity of the human person, of which freedom is an essential component. Ultimately, this freedom is given and guaranteed by God, whose voice resounds in the conscience of every human being."

The readings for this weekend can be found at #1271 in your hymnal.

Adopt a Flower Bed: A Stewardship Opportunity

We invite parish families to “adopt” a flower bed around our church grounds.

Families will help care for their designated bed by regularly weeding and maintaining it throughout the growing season. Caring for our parish grounds is a simple but meaningful act of stewardship, allowing us to share our time and talents while creating a beautiful and welcoming place for our parish community to worship and gather. All gardening and maintenance must be completed outside of Mass times.

To participate or learn more, please contact the Parish Office.

This Week's Family Reflection for the 26th Week in Ordinary TimeGospel ReadingMatthew 21:28-32

Jesus poses a question to the chief priests and elders on the meaning of obedience.

Family Connection

The example Jesus poses in today's Gospel could have been taken directly from family experience. Each of us can recall instances in which family members spoke one thing but then did another. The point of Jesus' story is to show that our actions speak louder than words, even with God.

As you gather as a family, talk about times when a family member said one thing and then did another. Acknowledge that sometimes the action taken displays a true change of heart. Then read today's Gospel, Matthew 21:28-32. Observe that Jesus faulted the religious leaders for not allowing John the Baptist's message of repentance to change their hearts and actions. The word we sometimes use for this change of heart is conversion. Jesus wants us to do more than pay lip service to the Gospel; he wants us to be transformed by his word.

Pray together that your family will experience a conversion to God and show evidence of this in both actions and words. Pray together today's second reading, Philippians 2:1-5.
