Missionary Creativity

“The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community. While certainly not the only institution which evangelizes, if the parish proves capable of self-renewal and constant adaptivity, it continues to be the Church living in the midst of the homes of her sons and daughters”

Pope Francis in EVANGELII GAUDIUM #28

Saint Eulalia Parish Mission Statement

A Weekly Quote from Pope Leo XIV

“The Church is a great sign of hope for our times, traversed by so many conflicts and wars. We are a people in which women and men of different nationalities, languages, and cultures live together in faith. It is a sign placed in the very heart of humanity, offering a reminder and prophecy of the unity and peace to which God the Father calls all His children.” (General Audience)

Sacrament of Baptism

The sacrament of baptism was celebrated recently in our church. We congratulate and ask God’s blessings on Ayla Joyce, daughter of Frank & Spencer (Ploskonka) DePietro, and Althea Jean, daughter of Brian & Clarissa (Eggleston) McCool. Welcome into God’s family here at St. Eulalia Parish.

PARISH BASED FAITH FORMATION GRANT
2026 FUNDING INITIATIVES

The Parish Based Faith Formation Grant is funded by generous donations to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, made possible by parishioners from 102 parishes in the Diocese of Scranton.

As good stewards of these resources, the Office for Parish Life has identified several opportunities that effectively align with the priorities of the grant and provide great value to parish communities. Each of the 2026 Funding Initiatives is part of a greater effort to engage people of all ages, especially adults, in growing as disciples of Jesus Christ. In addition, these initiatives recognize the need to meet people where they are, including those who may not be able to attend programming offered at the parish. By expanding the “reach” of the parish, more people can be invited to participate and become more active in their personal faith and in the life of the parish community.

Parishes are encouraged to consider the 2026 Funding Initiatives, while at the same time determining which approach to lifelong formation is most suitable to their parish community.

2026 Funding Initiatives are competitive and will be awarded based on the strength of the application. Parishes may apply for any one of these initiatives or a combination of several initiatives.

01 Hallow
Catholic Prayer & Meditation App

Key Program Components:

- Launch of the Hallow App
- Custom Parish Page
- Faith Formation Resources with free subscriptions for catechists and students over 13, plus family-focused content for younger children
- Giftable accounts (bypass the $1 and are free)
 - All parish staff receive full annual Hallow accounts
 - Priests, Deacons, and Religious receive full lifetime accounts (sign up here)

02 CATECHETICAL INSTITUTE
FRANCISCAN UNIVERSITY

CATECHETICAL FORMATION

Grant funding allows a parish unlimited access to all the resources available through the Catechetical Institute's Franciscan at Home online platform, offering formation to Parish Catechetical Leaders, Catechists, Youth Ministers, and adults. All learners are invited to grow deeper in their relationship with God as they learn how to echo the faith.

Learners can complete Catechetical Institute workshops, taught by University professors and other experts, either individually or in group settings. Parishes may also apply for conference fees for the Saint John Bosco Conference, where catechists, teachers, youth ministers, and leaders come together to deepen their faith, sharpen their skills, and be re-energized for the mission of sharing the Gospel.

For more information, contact:
Marianne Guarnieri
Director of Discipleship
mguarnieri@dioceseofscranton.org

03 CONFERENCE REGISTRATION SIGN UP

CONFERENCE FEE ASSISTANCE

Grant funding can be used for conferences and other events sponsored by the Diocese of Scranton and partner ministries, including:

- Youth Rally
- NYC
- Steubenville Youth Conference
- Lead Like Jesus Youth Retreat
- Women's Retreat
- Refresh Your Faith Catholic Women's Conference
- Be a Catholic Man Conference and Retreat

Parishes may also identify other conferences and apply for funding. Because it may be difficult to forecast exactly how many people will attend a particular conference/event, parishes may estimate the necessary funds by estimating both the cost and the number of attendees.

Awarded grant money will remain with the Diocese and distributed from a “debit” account for each conference/event.

For more information, contact:
Marianne Guarnieri
Director of Discipleship

This Week's Family Reflection for the Fourth Sunday of Easter

Gospel Reading John 10:1-10
 Jesus is the gate for His sheep.

Family Connection Even though we have less experience with sheep and shepherds today in our society, we can still identify strongly with the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd and as the gate for the sheep. Psalm 23 remains a popular and favorite psalm for prayer. In the image of the Good Shepherd, we know ourselves to be protected and cared for by a loving God.

As your family gathers, ask what each person knows about sheep and shepherds. Recall that shepherds and sheep have a close relationship. Sheep will only follow their own shepherd; they recognize his voice and will not follow a stranger. The shepherd's job is to protect his sheep. In some ways, the relationship between the shepherd and his sheep is like that of a parent and child. Read together this Sunday's Gospel, John 10:1-10. Talk about how Jesus tells us that he is the gate for the sheep. The sheep enter the protection of the sheepfold through the gate. In Jesus we find protection and abundant life. Conclude by thanking Jesus for being our Good Shepherd and by praying today's psalm, Psalm 23..
