Missionary Creativity

"The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community. While certainly not the only institution which evangelizes, if the parish proves capable of self-renewal and constant adaptivity, it continues to be the Church living in the midst of the homes of her sons and daughters"

Pope Francis in EVANGELII GAUDIUM #28

Saint Eulalia Parish Mission Statement

We are an evangelizing Catholic community living and sharing the Gospel values of faith, hope, and love.

The Welcome Desk is located in the Atrium foyer and has Mass cards and parish registration forms available during this hour for parishioners and visitors! Volunteers are welcome to serve one Sunday a month or on a weekly basis if interested. This is a great way to add to the welcoming spirit of St. Eulalia's. We are so grateful to our parishioners: Mary Perry and Lori Carlin for their willingness to serve on select Sundays of each month! This Week's Family Reflection for the 23rd Week of Ordinary Time —

Gospel Reading—Luke 14:25-33

Jesus teaches about the demands of discipleship.

Provide your children with a list of things that they are responsible for interspersed with things that they like to do—for example, make their beds, take out the garbage, go to the park, do homework, watch television, have a snack, feed the cat. The list should reflect their responsibilities and favorite recreations. Tell them to pretend that company is coming and ask which of the things listed should be done first. Explain that this is called setting priorities.

Paraphrase the Gospel story for the children. Ask them what Jesus says is the most important thing for them to do. Jesus tells us that the number-one priority is to follow him. But just as it is not always easy to do the things we are supposed to do before doing the fun things, it is not always easy to be a follower of Jesus. Yet when we put Jesus first, we will be truly happy.
