A Weekly Quote from Pope Leo XIV

"If we truly wish to discover and nurture the divine beauty that surrounds us and for which we were made, and to share it with those around us, we must learn to see it in the wrinkles of an elderly person as in the tender face of a child as well, in the maturity of an adult as in the liveliness of a young person as well, in work clothes and tools as well as in festive decorations."

The readings for this weekend can be found at #1268 in your hymnal.

Adopt a Flower Bed: A Stewardship Opportunity

We invite parish families to “adopt” a flower bed around our church grounds.

Families will help care for their designated bed by regularly weeding and maintaining it throughout the growing season. Caring for our parish grounds is a simple but meaningful act of stewardship, allowing us to share our time and talents while creating a beautiful and welcoming place for our parish community to worship and gather. All gardening and maintenance must be completed outside of Mass times.

To participate or learn more, please contact the Parish Office.

This Week's Family Reflection for the 25th Week in Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading

Matthew 20:1-16

In the parable of the workers in the vineyard, Jesus teaches about God's generous mercy.

Family Connection

The workers in this parable sound very much like squabbling children, comparing what they have each been given and making complaints to the parent. Among children there is a tendency to equate love with gifts and material things. This tendency can devolve into a spirit of entitlement, which runs counter to the spirit of gratitude. Any effort we make to overcome this tendency, to keep love from being entwined with gifts and possessions, will enable our children to accept completely the love that God gives freely and generously.

Observe together any tendency within your family to make comparisons. Are children sometimes heard saying that another child received a greater portion of a favorite food at dinner or dessert? Does one person complain that a parent spends more time with one child over another? Ask if such comparisons are helpful. Discuss together why such comparisons are made. Then read together today's Gospel, Matthew 20:1-16. Consider these questions: Why do the workers grumble? Is the landowner's assessment accurate? Unfortunately, we are sometimes like these workers when we make the comparisons we discussed earlier.

Conclude in prayer together remembering that love cannot and ought not to be measured. Sit quietly together acknowledging God's great love for each person as individuals and for your family. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 145, or the Lord's Prayer.
