Missionary Creativity

"The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community. While certainly not the only institution which evangelizes, if the parish proves capable of self-renewal and constant adaptivity, it continues to be the Church living in the midst of the homes of her sons and daughters"

Pope Francis in EVANGELII GAUDIUM #28

Saint Eulalia Parish Mission Statement

We are an evangelizing Catholic community living and sharing the Gospel values of faith, hope, and love.

A Weekly Quote from Pope Leo XIV

"A true parish" is where we all learn to say 'Welcome,' not only with words, but with a spirit of hospitality, opening the door and welcoming everyone."

Pope Leo XIV

The readings for this weekend can be found at #1247 in your hymnal.

SPECIAL COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

VENEZUELA EARTHQUAKE RELIEF

FUNDS TO BE SENT TO CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES TO HELP WITH EMERGENCY SHELTER, FOOD, SAFE WATER AND MEDICAL CARE

Our parish will include a special collection this weekend during the first collection to support those affected by the devastating earthquakes in Venezuela. Please label your generous contributions "Venezuela Earthquake relief" and place in offertory basket. All funds will be forwarded through the Diocese of Scranton to Catholic Relief Services, which is working with Caritas Venezuela and the local Church to provide emergency shelter, food, safe water, medical care, and other critical assistance. Thank you for your prayers and your generous support of our brothers and sisters in need.

This Week's Family Reflection for the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading

Matthew 14:13-21

Jesus feeds the crowd with five loaves and two fish.

Family Connection

In our family life we can sometimes hear echoes of the disciples' excuses: "Five loaves and two fish are all we have here." Sometimes this echo is heard from children squabbling about the last piece of cake. Sometimes it is heard in our concern about the limits of the family's income or possessions. Sometimes this echo is heard in our complaints about the seemingly endless demands for our time and attention. Jesus understood these feelings and taught us to see beyond our limitations. Jesus modeled for us a compassion that reaches out to others, even when we would rather withdraw into ourselves. Jesus taught us that God blesses compassion offered to others with his grace. Today's Gospel reminds us that with God there is not only enough, there is an abundance!

Talk together about some of the stresses and demands for time and attention that your family members might feel. Acknowledge that we sometimes have to make difficult choices about how to use our time, talents, and treasure. Then read together today's Gospel, Matthew 14:13-21. Notice how much Jesus cared for the crowds, healing the sick even though he wanted to withdraw to a quiet place. Notice how the disciples responded to Jesus' instruction to feed the crowd; they noted their limited supply of food. Jesus blessed this limited supply of food, and it was enough to feed the entire crowd, more than 5,000 people, and there were leftovers! Pray together that Jesus will grant us compassion like his so that we will offer whatever we have to others with compassion and generosity. Pray together today's Psalm, Psalm 145, or the Lord's Prayer.
