A Weekly Quote from Pope Leo XIV

“One of the characteristics of young people is restlessness. Do not be afraid of the restlessness within you. Let it inspire you to draw even closer to Christ and to bear witness to the values of the gospel. Firmly rooted in the Word of Jesus, reading the Gospel every day, never stop dreaming of a land where there is peace and fraternity, nor stop looking at the world with wonder, nor stop facing the future with the light of hope. Dear young people, do not let anything or anyone steal your hope.”

The readings for this weekend can be found at #1265 in your hymnal.

New Director of Religious Education

Colleen is a seasoned and highly respected educator who has dedicated more than two decades to education, serving both in the classroom and in administrative leadership positions. She holds a Doctorate in Education and brings to our parish a wealth of experience, knowledge, and enthusiasm for the formation and education of young people. I am confident that Colleen will be a tremendous asset to our parish and to our Religious Formation program. I ask you to join me in welcoming her to this important ministry and in supporting her as she begins this new chapter of service to our parish families.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Kelley McConnell for her many years of service to our parish community. Kelley has served our parish in a variety of ways and has generously shared her time, talents, and dedication with our children, families, and parish community. She has chosen to leave her position as Director of Religious Education to pursue other opportunities. We are grateful for all that Kelley has contributed and wish her every blessing and success in the future. Please join me in thanking Kelley for her service and welcoming Colleen to our parish community.

This Week's Family Reflection for the 24th Week in Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading

Matthew 18:21-35

Jesus teaches that we must forgive one another as God has forgiven us.

Family Connection

Children learn to trust God's mercy and forgiveness when they experience forgiveness from those closest to them. We hope that we model God's love and forgiveness within our family life. Today's Gospel reminds us that forgiveness is measured by its quality more than its quantity.

Invite your family to consider some recent times when family members sought the forgiveness of another. Ask if there were any statements made that put conditions on our forgiveness such as "I will play this game with you if you apologize for knocking over my blocks" or "I will accept your apology after you clean up your room." Do we sometimes "keep count" or put conditions on our forgiveness of one another? This is something we may be doing without realizing it.

Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 18:21-35. Ask if we sometimes find ourselves sounding like Peter, concerning ourselves with quantity of forgiveness rather than offering forgiveness abundantly and unconditionally. Reflect upon the parable that Jesus tells. What does the servant do that makes the king so angry? He refuses to forgive his fellow servant the debt that he owes. Because we have all received God's forgiveness, God expects that we will also be forgiving toward others. Jesus' answer to Peter's question is found at the end of the parable. The number of times that we forgive one another is less important than the depth of our forgiveness. We must forgive one another from the heart.

Conclude in prayer together that God's love and forgiveness is evident in your family life. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 103, or the Lord's Prayer.
