Missionary Creativity

“The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community. While certainly not the only institution which evangelizes, if the parish proves capable of self-renewal and constant adaptivity, it continues to be the Church living in the midst of the homes of her sons and daughters”

Pope Francis in EVANGELII GAUDIUM #28

A Weekly Quote from Pope Leo XIV —

“God loves to hope with the hearts of the little ones, and He does so by involving them in His plan of salvation. The more beautiful the plan, the greater the hope. The world moves forward like this, driven by the hope of many simple people, unknown to the world but not to God.”

This Week's Family Reflection for the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading Matthew 5:1-12a

Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Family Connection

Today's Gospel offers a contrast to many of the messages we hear in our society today. If we were to accept uncritically the "get ahead" messages of our culture, we would think that happiness means having money, being successful, having many possessions, and so on. When we think this way, we are not unlike the people who heard Jesus teach on the day that he taught the Beatitudes. The crowd that day also associated happiness with material possessions and status.

Talk as a family about what it means to be happy or to be blessed. Make a list of traits that you would associate with a happy person. Then read together today's Gospel, Matthew 5:1-12a. Reflect on Jesus' description of happiness. Think about what each of the Beatitudes might have in common and write a family summary of the Beatitudes. Post the summary in a special place as a reminder of what your family will consider "true happiness."
